Essay Evaluation Criteria:

Judges evaluating the essays will use the following criteria:

- Does the essay present a clear focus of the topic?
- Does the essay display originality?
- Does the essay possess clear writing skills, including spelling and grammar?

Evaluation Process:

Contest judges will see no identifying information about entrants. A panel of judges comprised of TCCU Board members and TCCU employees will select the essays that best meet the above criteria. Recipients may be required to meet with the President/CEO to discuss the contents of his or her essay to validate authorship. Should the originality of the work become questionable, the President/CEO shall direct the Scholarship Committee to select an alternate essay to receive the award. In addition, in the event of a tie, those essays may be reevaluated by an appointed TCCU Board member or TCCU employee to determine a winner. All decisions will be final.

Consideration will also be given to the number of TCCU products and/or services used by the applicant. Scoring will be as follows:

Products and/or Services Used	Points	Essay Percentage	Possible Essay Points	Total Maximum Points
1	20	50%	50	70
2	35	50%	50	85
3	50	50%	50	100
